CANDIDATES CAN SECURE POINTERS AT THE BUTLER

"A POLITICAL DISCUSSION" SHOULD APPEAL TO OFFICE HUNTERS.

The program of the Butler theater for today consists of the following:

"A Political Discussion" is a comedy that will particularly appeal to the would-be county officers and from which they might derive some benefit; "Please Take One" is another comedy in which the public is led to believe that they are about to receive something for nothing. "Refusing a Mansion—How and Why" is entertainingly told in this picture. The way the question of why is answered will cause the audience to agree with the situation. "Buying a Mother-in-Law" is a novel way perhaps to obtain a mother-in-law, though maybe more have been obtained in this way than is generally known. Whether the price was too much is a question which might well be decided by some individual who is a good judge in that line. "The Sorrows of the Unfaithful" is another of those beautiful Biograph dramas, depicting Bill and Mary, two sweethearts from childhood, and the trouble that follows through the unfaithfulness of the girl. Tomorrow's program contains a representation of Dora Thorne, a story that has been read by nearly everyone. The cast is very good and undoubtedly will be witnessed by a good attendance on account of the great popularity of the novel.

NEGRO PORTER FINDS WALLET CONTAINING $2500

NEW YORK, Sept. 23. — The timely discovery today by Benjamin Jackson, a negro porter, of a fat wallet on the French liner pier, was all that prevented Manager Fouchet, bishop of Orleans, France, from sailing for home penniless. The bishop sailed on the liner Lorraine after attending the recent eucharistic congress at Montreal. He discovered the loss of his pocket book, containing about $2,500, just as the ship was casting loose.

COURT AND JURY TAKE A TRIP TO ROUND MOUNTAIN

WILL MAKE PERSONAL INSPECTION OF PROPERTY UNDER LITIGATION.

Everything went along swimmingly this morning in the district court in the case of J. F. Davidson versus the Round Mountain Mining company, for when an adjournment was taken at noon the records showed that four questions had been propounded to the plaintiff on the witness stand and had all been answered. This makes about eight questions disposed of since the taking of testimony was commenced. Prior to the noon adjournment Judge Mark R. Averill, the presiding officer, at the request of counsel for both sides, announced that the jury would be taken to Round Mountain this afternoon to visit the scene of action and become familiar with the workings and location of the ground over which the dispute arose.

The jury will leave shortly after 4 o'clock and will be accompanied by Judge Averill, Bailiff McFadden, Attorneys Sanders and Alling. Mrs. Gillespie, court reporter, General Manager Ernest of the Round Mountain Mining company; J. F. Davidson, the plaintiff; and probably several others. The party will inspect the ground tomorrow and return to Tonopah in the evening. The expense of the trip will be met by both sides, for it was by their solicitation that the inspection will be made.

THEATRE PARTY ENJOYS A TRIP THROUGH MIZPAH

MEMBERS OF REDMOND STOCK COMPANY MAKE UNDERGROUND TOUR.

Through the courtesy of Superintendent W. H. Blackburn of the Tonopah Mining company, the members of the Redmond stock company yesterday were afforded the privilege of taking a trip through the underground workings of the largest silver-producing mine in the United States. The visitors thoroughly enjoyed their experience, for it was the first time they had ever ventured underground. The party was shown different forms of mining in the stopes, winzes, drifts and crosscuts, and emerged with a fairly good coating of candle grease and dust. The party was arranged by Arthur Perry, chief clerk of the Mizpah, who accompanied the explorers.

PERSONAL MENTION

E. V. Lawton, mayor of Rye Patch, was a Tonopah visitor today. T. D. Rogers came in from Manhattan last evening for a few days' stay.

Dan Hamilton departed this morning for Wisconsin, where he will take charge of a big logging camp. O. LaMontague, the jeweler, returned from Goldfield this morning, having journeyed to that city yesterday.

Senator T. J. Bell, after spending several days in Tonopah, departed this morning for his home at Berlin.

Miss Della Gilbert went to Manhattan this morning, where she will have charge of the school of that district.

H. H. Bacon, the local real estate agent, returned this morning from Los Angeles, where he spent the last six weeks.

County Commissioner Charles A. Humphrey departed this morning for Manhattan, where he will spend Sunday with his family.

H. E. Davis, formerly of the Bonanza staff, but now on the editorial force of the Goldfield News, passed through Tonopah this morning on his way to Reno.

Mrs. John G. Kirchen, wife of General Manager Kirchen of the Tonopah Extension, returned to this city yesterday, after an absence of several weeks spent in San Francisco.

SUMMONS.

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF the Fifth Judicial District of the State of Nevada in and for the County of Nye.

Ellen G. Oddie, Alice T. Oddie and Montana-Tonopah Mining Company, a corporation, plaintiff, vs. Mae Zawaskie, John Doe, Richard Roe, Peter Doe and Jane Doe, defendants.

Action brought in the District Court of the Fifth Judicial District of the State of Nevada, in and for the County of Nye, and the complaint filed in said County of Nye, in the office of the Clerk of said District Court.

The State of Nevada sends greetings to Mae Zawaskie, John Doe, Richard Roe, Peter Doe and Jane Doe, or defendants.

You are hereby required to appear in an action brought against you by the above-named plaintiff in the District Court of the Fifth Judicial District of the State of Nevada, in and for the County of Nye, and to answer the complaint filed therein, within ten days (exclusive of the day of service) after the service on you of this summons, if served within this county; or, if served out of this county, but in this district, within twenty days; or judgment by default will be taken against you, according to the prayer of said complaint.

The said action is brought to quiet title to the "Miriam" mining claim, adjoining the "Montana-Tonopah" group on the north, situated in the Tonopah Mining district, Nye county, Nevada; and to compel the defendants to set forth the nature of any adverse claims to said property and any claim they, or any of them, may have to any interest or right to or in said property or any part thereof; and to obtain from said court a judgment and decree declaring the plaintiffs to be the sole and absolute owners of said property and declaring the defendants, and each of them, to be utterly without any right, title or interest to or in said property; and debarring each and all of the defendants from asserting any claim whatsoever in or to said "Miriam" mining claim or any part thereof; and granting such further relief as to the court may seem proper.

And you are further notified that if you fail to appear and answer said complaint as above required, said plaintiff will apply to the court for the relief demanded therein.

Given under my hand and the seal of the District Court of the Fifth Judicial District of the State of Nevada, in and for the County of Nye, this 26th day of August, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and ten.

Attest: A true copy. (Seal) ROBT. G. POHL, Clerk.

OLD STAGE DRIVER SPEAKS OF MARK TWAIN

The pioneer stage driver of northern California, Frank Carpenter, is in the city for the first time in fifteen years. Carpenter, who is 76 years old, is an interesting character. He drove stages in different parts of the West, but principally in California, Oregon, Idaho and Montana, for a period covering forty years. He arrived in Yreka in 1858 and visited the site of Chico before the town was started.

The veteran stage driver was an old friend of Mark Twain and tells many interesting stories concerning him.

"One day, shortly after Clemens came to the far West," said Carpenter, "I was talking with him on a street in Virginia City, Nev., where he had secured work as a reporter on the Virginia Enterprise. During the course of conversation a fight started half a block away and we were interrupted by the sound of pistol shots. We turned in time to see one man drop to the sidewalk. We didn't know whether he was dead or not.

"I'll bet you $10 he's dead, or I'll bet you $10 he's not," said Clemens, without a moment's hesitation, and was greatly disappointed when I failed to take him up. It turned out that the man was dead."

Carpenter says he has the record for stage driving and cites the fact that in three years' time, while handling the reins from Silver City, New Mexico, to Globe, Ariz., he drove 76,650 miles. The trip over this route was made by night, through a hostile Indian country.—Sacramento Union.

All Voters Must Register for Forthcoming General Election

The great register for the general elections to be held on November 8 will close on October 21 and those who have not registered at that time will be deprived of the privilege of voting at the fall election. Many persons have inferred that the fact of their having registered for the recent primary election or having been on the great register before the last general election would entitle them to vote this fall, but such is not the case. Every voter, no matter where he lives or what registry book or books he has signed in the past, must have his name entered on the great register before October 21, if he would vote at the general election this fall.
